

Wedding Catering Questionnaire

Selecting a caterer for your wedding day is perhaps one of the most important decisions you will have to make in planning your perfect day. A good caterer is often booked a year or more in advance. So once the wedding date and theme have been determined you should begin this process right away. Russ Moran Custom Catering is a full-service caterer. In addition to food and beverage services we offer rental coordination, planning, design, and consulting.

The following questionnaire is designed to give us an idea of your ideal wedding day so that we may create a custom proposal for you and your fiancé to review prior to our first meeting. Please give us as much detail as possible.
